U.S. Aid to Israel Suspended

The Lee county chapter of the National Foundation Infantile Paralysis has received a March of Dimes check for $4,900 to help provide care for polio patients in the county.

The chapter chairman, Edward A. Jones, said the national organization sent the money under an arrangement to provide needy chapters with immediate emergency aid. The chapter also received a check for $4,800 in July after local funds were wiped out in caring for polio patients.

1953 has not been the worst polio year in the county, (1947 had 25 cases) but 22 persons were stricken with the disease and they must be cared for. And while budgets are made up on a yearly basis, the need for care of the polio victims extends beyond the year in which they are stricken. The Lee county chapter is caring for 14 persons who were hit by polio in previous years.

The last fund drive by the Lee chapter brought in a little more than $10,000. Half of it went to the national organization and half stayed in the county. By July the local funds were used and the first national foundation checks arrived. Now the second check has arrived.

The cost of polio treatment is tremendous to the average person. While mild cases may bring a relatively small bill, Jones says the local chapter now is caring for two patients who each had a $5,000 polio insurance policy. The long-term treatment they required exhausted the policies, and the polio chapter now is helping them.

We have heard recently encouraging reports of a vaccine that shows promise of being a possible polio preventative. We may know next year.

But as to the situation we face here and now, Jones says, "We have in Lee county a good example of how the local chapter and national headquarters work together to fight infantile paralysis. If we run in the red, the national foundation will pull us out even if it means advancing us more money than we are able to raise in the March of Dimes."

The help we've received from other parts of the nation will be something to keep in mind until the next March of Dimes starts. T. R. T.

Arraign Lloyd In Co. Court Wednesday

Frank (Bookie) Lloyd, Dixon, will be arraigned in county court at 10 a.m. Wednesday on a charge of bookmaking.

Lloyd, who is free on $2,500 bond, was granted a continuance of the case last Wednesday when his attorney, Edward Jones, asked time to make motions questioning the information filed by State's Atty. James Bales.

At last week's hearing, Lloyd pleaded not guilty to accepting a racing bet.

Mayor Turns Cop; Arrests Dixon Man For Drunkenness

Mayor William Slothower assumed the role of a police officer last night, arresting a Dixon man for drunkenness.

He encountered the man staggering at First and Galena street at 7:40 p.m. and cautioned him to be jelled.

The man, John Schumacker, appeared in the justice of the peace court this morning and paid a fine and costs amounting to $16.40.

U. S. Sending Delegate to Panmunjom

Still Disagree With Communist Ideas For Korean Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles announced today that a U. S. representative will leave Wednesday for Panmunjom to negotiate with the Communists on arrangements for a Korean political conference even though this country disagrees with some Red proposals for the Panmunjom talks.

The Panmunjom discussions are scheduled to get under way Monday. The U. S. representative will be Arthur Dean, a special assistant to Dulles.

Dulles told a news conference the American government considers that the questions of what nations should attend a Korean political conference has already been decided by the United Nations.

Can't Prevent
But, he observed, if the Reds—who want to include neutrals—bring up the subject at Panmunjom the United States cannot prevent their doing so.

Dulles returned only Monday from a Big Three foreign ministers meeting at London which reviewed the problems of Korea, Trieste, Germany, Austria and other troubled spots.

He spent an hour at the White House this morning, reporting to President Eisenhower and later met with newsmen.

In addition to his announcement as to Korea, the secretary of state told reporters:

1. Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Britain has not informed the United States of any plan to go to Moscow to see Soviet Premier Malenkov, Dulles declined to say, however, whether Churchill had urged on him personally in London the desirability of a meeting with Malenkov, including President Eisenhower, which Churchill keeps talking about publicly.

Sidesteps Issue
In parliament today, Churchill said he still hopes for an informal conference of world leaders. He sidestepped attempts to get him to say whether he was prepared to journey alone to Moscow to talk with Malenkov.

2. Dulles believes that a conference of the United States, Britain, France, Yugoslavia and Italy could be a useful step toward settlement of the dispute over Trieste and especially in getting a proper perspective on the critical problem of developing a solid strategic plan for the defense of southern Europe. The Italian-Yugoslav split presently blocks this.

Evades Comment
In questioning on the Trieste problem, Dulles was asked whether the U. S. and British troops

Ex-Carpenter President, William L. Harrison, Dies

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—William L. Hutcheson, 79, general superintendent of the AFL Carpenters' union for 36 years and a towering figure in the American labor movement, died in Methodist hospital here today of a heart ailment.

The veteran labor leader was brought to the hospital Oct. 12 for a stomach examination and suffered a heart attack Oct. 15 before the stomach tests were completed. He had been in critical condition since.

Hutcheson, one of the few Republicans among top union officials, stepped down from the active presidency of the 822,000-member union Jan. 1, 1952, and was succeeded by his son, Maurice A. Hutcheson. The elder Hutcheson was named general president emeritus.

Bitterest Fight
It was only a few months after his retirement that Hutcheson became involved in one of the bitterest fights of his career as an Indiana delegate to the Republican National Convention in Chicago.

The 32-member Indiana delegation was instructed by the Republican State Convention to support Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the presidential nomination. Hutcheson and one other delegate, Eugene C. Pulliam, Indianapolis newspaper publisher, defied the instruction and voted throughout

Award $20,000 In Accident Case

Dr. Everett Anderson Wins One of Highest Judgments

A Dixon veterinarian, Dr. Everett T. Anderson, was awarded a $20,000 judgment in circuit court Monday for personal injuries he suffered in an auto crash on July 5, 1952.

It was one of the highest amounts awarded here by a jury in personal injury case. Dr. Anderson had sued Joseph McGuirk, 51, Amboy, claiming McGuirk's car had crashed into his auto on the Harmon spur while Anderson was returning from delivering a calf on a farm south of Harmon.

Anderson had asked $25,000 for personal injuries and $3,000 for damages to his car. Anderson said McGuirk's car had crashed into his back, chest and had a multiple fractured left leg.

No Defense
McGuirk, an Amboy farmer, was represented by George Ray, of the firm of Dixon, Devine and Ray. Anderson's counsel was William Gunner, of the firm of Dixon, Bales and Gunner.

The defendant's counsel made no opening statement to the jury, summoned no witnesses and waived closing arguments.

McGuirk had filed a counterclaim for damages to his auto but dismissed the claim during the trial yesterday.

In closing the plaintiff's case yesterday afternoon, Atty. Gunner called Sheriff John Stouffer, a chief deputy at the time of the accident investigation, who told of the accident circumstances.

Was Arrested
He testified that when he arrived on the scene, the Anderson car was off the highway to the right and that McGuirk's machine was almost entirely in the wrong lane.

He said that he observed that

Arab-Israel Issue Heads UN Docket

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council braced itself for a double-header today—Soviet demands for the internationalization of disputed Trieste and continued debate on a Big Three call for a probe into the bloody Arab-Israeli border squabble.

The Arab-Israel question was first.

The United States, Britain and France asked for an urgent council session on the Palestine issue after denouncing an Israeli attack on a Jordan village last week in which Jordan claims 66 lives were lost.

Later today, the council was scheduled to continue debate on the Soviet-sponsored move to name a Swiss governor for the free territory of Trieste under permanent U. N. control.

Both Yugoslavia and Italy oppose that solution for the future of the strategic area, which each claims.

On the Palestine issue, the United States has served notice that it will withhold American financial aid to Israel until the Jewish state abandons its project to divert the Jordan river along the Syrian frontier for irrigation.

The U. N. Monday brought out its own plan for making use of the Jordan waters—a 121 million dollar "TVA on the Jordan" to provide irrigation and water power to both Arabs and Israelis.

Lt. Templeton, State Police, Is Suspended

Area Officer Disregarded Order, Claim

Squabble Over Rites For Ex-Policeman Cited as the Reason

BULLETIN

Phil Brown, director of the department of public safety, Springfield, said today that he was "studying" the suspension of Lt. Delmar Templeton and added that "it appeared to be a willful act of disregard." The maximum suspension for such a case is 30 days, Brown said.

Lt. Delmar Templeton, 30, 603 McKenney st., Dixon, commanding the Sterling state police sub-district, was suspended "indefinitely" today by Capt. Henry Engstrom on what appears to be charges of insubordination.

Capt. Engstrom, who commands the Rock Island district, which includes Sterling, notified Templeton of his suspension in a phone call to his home about 9 a.m.

The suspension was the result of a disagreement over orders issued to state police by Templeton allowing them to wear uniforms as pallbearers for James Giblin, 25, Dixon, who was killed in a truck accident near Amboy Saturday. He was a former state policeman in the Sterling district.

Names Cramer

Capt. Engstrom, after notifying Templeton of his suspension, radioed the suspension order to all squads. He immediately named Sgt. Ray Cramer, Sterling, as acting lieutenant. Cramer previously commanded the Sterling district but was replaced by Templeton in June, 1950. Cramer is a veteran on the force.

Capt. Engstrom reportedly radioed Templeton to return all his equipment to headquarters.

Templeton told a Telegraph reporter today that he was assuming "full responsibility" for an order issued to his officers serving as pallbearers. They wore uniforms at the funeral held this morning.

Templeton described his actions leading to the suspension this way: "He, Templeton, had issued the original order to his men allowing them to wear uniforms at the Giblin rites. His superior, Engstrom, countermanded the order, allowing them to attend as pallbearers but in civilian dress."

Templeton said today that he did not notify his officers of the countermanding order, but assumed responsibility for his original order. Consequently the pallbearers were dressed in uniforms.

Then It Came

Capt. Engstrom, learning of that fact, suspended him. Templeton told a reporter, "I am assuming all responsibility for their wearing the uniforms."

Capt. Engstrom, contacted in Rock Island where he is attending a conference, confirmed the suspension and said that it was "unfortunate" that the internal discussion arose.

He said that he "regretted" that he was forced to suspend Templeton. When asked if there were any underlying reasons for the suspension, Capt. Engstrom said, "No, that's it," meaning that the uniform incident was the main reason.

Later this morning, it was revealed that the Giblin family, learning of the "no-uniform" instructions issued by Engstrom, contacted Rep. Hubert Conditine, Dixon.

Rep. Conditine said that he had contacted William Downey, Gov. William Stratten's administrative assistant, early this morning.

Downey Okays It
Rep. Conditine said that Downey, hearing the story, had approved state police officers attending the funeral in uniform.

Conditine said that he considered the matter "not a political issue."

"I merely interceded for the family," Conditine said, "I don't

Ask Three To Resign at Kankakee

No Charges Filed Against 3 Civil Service Workers

KANKAKEE, Ill. (AP)—Dr. Otto Bettag, state welfare director, announced Monday night he had asked for the resignation of three employees of the Kankakee State hospital in an investigation of thefts of an estimated million dollars in food and supplies.

Dr. Bettag is conducting the investigation in which one man already has been charged with grand larceny.

He is Ferdinand Foster, 44, Negro civil service truck driver for the hospital since 1937. He was seized Saturday and released Monday on $15,000 bond.

Wife Resigns

Among those who resigned Monday was Foster's wife, Lillie, a registered nurse employed by the hospital for 16 years. A woman cook and a laundry man also resigned at Dr. Bettag's request. The director declined to identify the pair. All three employees were on civil service.

"Mrs. Foster was not involved in the theft but she felt she should resign in fairness to herself and the department of welfare," Dr. Bettag said.

No charges have been placed against the cook and laundry man, Dr. Bettag said, but evidence uncovered in his investigation is being turned over to State's Attorney Frank Curran of Kankakee county and to the State Attorney General's office for action.

On Suspension
The director said the laundry man already was on 30-day suspension accused of drinking on duty, inefficient operation of machinery and theft of food and clothing.

He said the cook told him she knew Foster used her keys to get into the institution's refrigerator.

Police Chief Wallace Flannery said he raided Foster's home Saturday after obtaining a search warrant and found 150 pounds of meat taken from the hospital's supplies. He also found, Wallace said, shoes, clothing and linens bearing the hospital's identification markings.

No Comment
Bettag estimated that the hospital has lost about $250,000 a year in stolen merchandise over a period of four years.

Flannery said the arrest of Foster was the culmination of three months' investigation by a welfare department agent after State Sen. Victor McBroom of Kankakee had told Dr. Bettag of theft rumors.

Dr. Ernest Klein, superintendent of the hospital who is a holdover from the Democratic administration of former Gov. Adlai Stevenson, has refused comment on the thefts.

Betty Gruver Surrenders In Cleveland After Escape

CLEVELAND (AP)—A blonde former night club hostess who walked out on a 14-year sentence for the murder of a gambler in an Illinois tourist cabin abandoned her flight in Cleveland Monday night.

Miss Betty Jean Gruver, after drinking "one beer," called police from a tavern and later explained: "I had time left to serve and I might as well serve it."

The tiny woman wore a tight-fitting sweater and skirt bought with "money I saved from what relatives had given me." When a radio cruiser picked her up, she had only $2 left.

In her suitcase was the prison garb—blue jeans and shirt—she wore when she walked out of the Dwight, Ill., Women's Reformatory last Thursday when she had 8 years and 2 months to serve for the 1947 shooting of A. Glenn (Speed) Tilton.

Detectives said Miss Gruver was convicted of slaying Tilton in an attempted holdup. The Urbana, Ill., man operated a tourist court.

Miss Gruver said she had hitchhiked her way through Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan and arrived in Cleveland only six hours before she decided to surrender.

During her trial, Miss Gruver pleaded loss of memory, saying she did not recall shooting Tilton.

Take Action Because UN Rule Defied

Must Stop Trying To Divert Jordan Waters as Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles disclosed today the United States has suspended a $60 million dollar aid program for Israel because he believes the Israeli government is defying a United Nations ruling.

Dulles said the Eisenhower administration has decided to defer any aid allocations to Israel until it abides by a U. N. ruling that it must stop trying to divert waters from the River Jordan along the Syrian frontier.

Aid To Arabs

At a news conference, Dulles said the United States believes Israel should respect a decision, ordering a halt to this project, made by Gen. Vagn Bennike, Danish chief of the U. N. truce supervision group along the Palestine frontier.

The United States is continuing to go forward with smaller amounts of technical aid funds to Israel, he said. But no allocation of the larger grant funds, appropriated by Congress for the entire Middle East, has been made.

About 100 million dollars had been set aside for the Middle East, with 60 million of it tentatively earmarked for Israel by the Foreign Operations Administration.

Allocation for Arab governments from foreign aid funds, he indicated, are continuing to go forward.

Burrs was named to the post by Sheriff John Stouffer who was elevated from the chief deputy's job when Sheriff Redebaugh resigned to become acting Dixon postmaster. Burrs, now employed by the United Lumber, is a War II veteran. He also served as a state policeman in the Sterling district from 1946 to 1948.

He is married and has two sons, 4 and 7 years of age.

Sheriff Stouffer said that Burrs will serve as a special deputy until he can sever connections with his present employer. He expects Burrs to resume his full-time duties about Nov. 1.

Ag Committee Disputes Kline Says Farm Bureau Head Does Not Know Needs of Farmers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The house agriculture committee today winds up a tour of midwestern farm areas ready to challenge any who say farmers do not want present high, rigid price supports continued.

Members jumped quickly to answer a statement by president Allan Kline of the powerful American Farm Bureau Federation that the law-makers had made up their minds to extend present farm laws before they started making trips to the country.

Reps. Lovers (R-SD), Poage (D-Tex.) and Albert (D-Okla.), said Kline's statement before an Iowa Bankers' Association convention at Des Moines Monday showed he did not know what farmers are thinking.

They said hearings held in the South and in the Midwest — from Minnesota, through the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois and Indiana — convinced them that farmers do not want a Farm Bureau proposal for flexible price supports.

The committee gives Ohio farmers a chance today to present their views at a hearing to be held at the state office building.

In an informal poll Sunday, members said the committee would vote overwhelmingly to extend present 90 per cent of parity price supports on major crops at next year's session of Congress. These supports will expire at the end of the 1954 marketing year unless Congress extends them.

Farm Receipts Off During First Eight Months of '53

By L. H. SIMERL
Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Illinois

U. S. farmers took in 17.7 billion dollars during the first eight months of this year, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This 17.7 billion dollars is six per cent less than the all-time record high of a year ago.

So far this year average prices received have been off 10 per cent from last year, but farmers have sold four per cent more products to offset part of the decline in prices.

Most of the decline in farm receipts this year can be traced to lower prices for beef cattle and milk. For both of these products, unusual increases in marketings have brought more than off-setting declines in prices. Returns from cotton have also been lower than last year.

Poultry and eggs have paid off better so far this year than they did in 1952. Total receipts from poultry and eggs, January through August this year, were up 11 per cent over year-ago figures.

Cents Down
On the spending side of the farmer's account book, prices are down an average of three per cent for the first eight months of this year compared with last year.

Practically all of the decrease in average prices paid by farmers is accounted for in lower prices paid for purchased livestock and feed. These items are, of course, produced by other farmers. There has been little or no decrease in prices of any important products that farmers buy from industry.

During the past 12 months the downward pressure on farm prices has come largely from increased marketings. The year 1952 brought unusually large production of all the major crops — wheat, cotton, corn and tobacco. Beginning late last fall milk production increased considerably above average, and marketings of cattle jumped about 30 per cent. No such increases in production or marketings of farm products appear likely in the months ahead. In fact, total crop production for 1953 seems likely to be a little less than it was in 1952.

No Increase

On the other hand, consumer buying power increased about eight per cent from mid-1952 to mid-1953. Present conditions seem to point to little or no increase in consumer demand during the next 12 months, but rather to a moderate decrease.

From these facts it seems likely that the shaving of farm buying power, which has been under way for six years, will continue through the rest of this year and well into 1954.

Illinois farm income seems to be holding up a little better than the national average. For the first half of this year, cash receipts from farm marketings are estimated at 682 million dollars. This is only two per cent less than the corresponding 1952 figure. Returns from the big 1952 corn crop have helped to keep Illinois farm income from declining as much as the national average.

In the first half-year, farm income from Illinois crops went up from 268 million dollars in 1952 to 309 million this year. For the same time, Illinois farm income from livestock went down from 607 million dollars last year to 553 million dollars this year.

Boys Must Polish Brass, Says Judge

PEORIA, Ill. (U)—Plenty of brass polishing on the next six Saturdays faces Pete Forquer and Philip Hoover, both 16, for turning in a false fire alarm Sunday.

Police Magistrate Charles Schofield gave them a choice Monday between fines of $25 apiece or spend six days making firehouse fixtures shine. They said they'd polish.

A third youth, Robert Brown, 20, paid his fine.

All three culprits must chip in to pay a $20 reward to the person who had them arrested.

Livestock Feed May Be Product Of New Process

BERKELEY, Calif.—Researchers at the University of California are working on a process that may provide a cheap method of sewage disposal and simultaneously produce a high-protein food supplement for livestock.

This two-birds-with-one-stone operation involves the raising of algae—the tiny green plants that grow in water with the aid of sunlight.

The university's sanitary engineering laboratory raises the algae in large open ponds that hold sewage. As the little plants grow, they produce oxygen, which helps bacteria decompose the sewage. In turn the algae thrive on the carbon dioxide produced by the decomposition.

At the end of the process, there's no more sewage and the algae can be harvested as a protein-rich cattle feed.

The scientists report holding ponds are now used to some extent to get rid of sewage, but no attempts have been made to increase or to harvest the crop of algae in them. They think their research—although the experiments are by no means finished—may mean that about 1,000 pounds of algae can be produced from 1 million gallons of sewage.

A Small Flock

There is a place on many farms for a small flock of ewes. These animals subsist during the greater part of the year on material which would otherwise be wasted.

Relatively little work is required to care for them and they certainly "boost the bank account" during seasons when there might otherwise be comparatively little cash coming in.

The wool clipped from the ewes normally goes to market in May before any of the new crops are ready and lambs from the flock can be made ready for market in August when the income from these will help to pay for the new outfits necessary to start the youngsters off to school.

Area Youths Kept Busy at National FFA Convention

A number of Dixon area FFA youths attended the FFA Silver Anniversary National convention in Kansas City last week. They included George Mace, Lee Center; Wayne Coffman, Ashton; Ronnie Macklin, Steward; Dean Eich, Pawpaw; Robert Kreger, Ken Antoine and Don Colwell, Franklin Grove. Joe Hall, Pawpaw, vocational agriculture instructor, was adviser for the trip.

The youths left by train Sunday, Oct. 11. They attended convention sessions, hearing the national FFA public speaking contest and seeing the unveiling of a commemorative postage stamp by Assistant U. S. Postmaster General Albert J. Rob.

Poor Pasture Boosts Silage

Never has there been a year when old silage reserves could be used to such wonderful advantage.

Pastures have been sporadic—good at times but very dependable. The entire mid-west has been dry during most of August and September. Pastures have virtually been non-existent. Much hay has been fed out of next winter's reserve. Considerable corn was chopped and fed as fodder. Many cattle were allowed to shrink without supplemental feeding.

A supply of ensilage from previous crops would have been the perfect solution to all the problems. Remember—silage gets better with age.

Instances of 20 year old silage are quite common and they furnish proof of what can be done by storing a reserve. When conditions are good we should prepare for less favorable years which sooner or later are bound to come along.

Illinois Captures State Herd Award In Dairy Showing

The young Holstein breeders of Illinois joined forces in the junior show of the International Dairy Show to win the state herd award. This group qualification is five animals owned and shown by five exhibitors. Illinois won out over the entries of the best from Wisconsin, Indiana, and Ohio.

Corn Belt Moves Northward Due to Hybrid Varieties

Years ago youngsters were taught that the Corn Belt primarily embraced the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. A look at production by states this year shows that the center of the Corn Belt is no longer where it used to be.

It has moved northward very perceptibly. While this year's drought altered the picture to some extent there is no denying the change which has taken place since hybrid corn came into the picture.

On several occasions Minnesota has ranked third in total production, and is firmly entrenched in that position again this year. Wisconsin, which used to be thought of as the state that put all of its corn into the silo, has developed into one which matures a large amount over and above that. This year the estimated yield of 87 bushels per acre for the state exceeds that of all of the so-called "Corn Belt" states.

Southern Michigan now gives a good account of itself and South Dakota produces large crops of the golden grain. On the southern edge of the Corn Belt, Kansas and Missouri seem to be having a hard time fighting periodic midsummer droughts and the more satisfactory conditions for corn in states to the north have definitely tended to move the center of production.

BOSTON — (U)—Massachusetts woodlands were closed today — the scheduled opening of the hunting season—because of the forest fire menace.

Gov. Mearns closed the woods by proclamation Monday for the first time this year as acres of forest fires blazed in various sections of Massachusetts.

On The Rural Scene

With JIM SOMERS
Lee County Farm Adviser

Last night I heard Art Burkhardt say, "Any darn fool can raise corn, but it takes a pretty smart man to know when to sell it."

I think Art has hit on something pretty important. In examining Farm Bureau farm management records we see that the high income individuals make a lot by buying and selling at the right time.

The most efficient of these have made a lifetime study of price trends and fluctuations.

As long as the market is free and controlled by supply and demand there will be fluctuations in livestock and grain prices.

These fluctuations permit the keen observer to be repaid for knowledge.

Now and then, however, even the keenest may miss on buying steers, or selling corn.

There are still some openings in the new Dairy herd improvement association. If you would like to find out more about it contact the Farm Bureau office.

The other day I heard Lloyd Boehle say, "I was out of D.H.I.A. for awhile, but never again. With-out a test you just can't tell which cows are doing a job for you and which ones you should get rid of. I've heard this time and again from dairymen. They report that cows they think are their best sometimes prove to be just the opposite. It takes a test to do a good job of culling."

With lower farm prices and increased costs it's more important than ever to get rid of culls, whether they are chickens or cows. The culling must go on continuously.

I just talked with Mrs. Wilma Davis on the phone. She tells me that Wilman, Farm Bureau Farm Management, fieldman, is home from the hospital and on the road to recovery. We are glad to hear this and hope he continues to improve.

Wilman was rushed to a Rockford hospital with polio two weeks ago.

Tax Cuts Indicate Deficit for at Least Another Year

These are the days when the administration is wrestling with the great issue of how to avoid dangerous cuts in defense spending while still making good on political promises to slash taxes and balance the federal budget.

According to at least one Washington correspondent, the first decision in this ticklish field has now been made. That is not to allow the scheduled automatic reduction April 1 of 5 per cent in corporate income taxes, and of varying percentages in a sizable list of excise levies, such as those on liquor, tobacco, automobiles and gas.

Were those cuts to take place, it might cost the administration $3 billion in revenue annually. And that loss would come on top of the expected $5 billion drop in consequence of the Jan. 1 elimination of the excess profits tax and 10 per cent reduction in personal income levies.

So President Eisenhower's budget specialists have determined that the April 1 cuts must be blocked. Otherwise, they would have to give up all hope of balancing the budget during the next fiscal year, and perhaps even the year after that. For it is unlikely that sufficient defense savings could be made to close this huge gap without really endangering national security.

This does not mean, of course, that no excise tax reductions will take effect in the coming year. Mr. Eisenhower has promised to do something in 1954 about the movie tax, after having vetoed a bill to wipe it out this spring. Relief from excises seems indicated in other fields, where levies imposed in a war emergency now tend to be discriminatory.

But here again, Ike's budget experts are firm in their view that changes in these fields should not produce a net loss of revenue to the Treasury. In other words, if congress cuts down on some of these taxes, they believe it should impose new excises elsewhere to make up the loss.

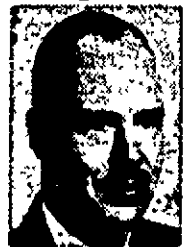

No one can be sure, of course, what the congressional reaction will be to this plan. Congress dislikes adding any kind of new tax in an election year. And there seems to be some sentiment among key tax lawmakers for letting the April 1 cuts go through no matter what the president wants.

Even if the plan is nailed down tight, however, and manages to win congressional endorsement, there still remains the question of what to do about the $5 billion loss that should follow from the January reductions.

Should the administration decide this loss cannot be partly or wholly made up by other new taxes, then it must get into the matter of determining how much defense and other spending can be trimmed off to bring the budget closer to balance. Present indications are that the president's experts will not be able to make it the whole way, and that some sort of deficit is thus likely for at least another year.

In the beginning the earth was completely molten. Now it is apparent that there is a layer of liquid metal that lies between the crust and a solid center, with a mantle of rocky material extending to the surface. Below it there is a region still so hot and under such pressure that it is liquid and at the center there is solid iron.

The Doctor Says: Painful Joints May Be Just Wearing Out, Not Diseased

By EDWIN P. JORDON, M. D.

The end joint of the little finger of the catching hand of many baseball players often becomes enlarged. This is supposed to be the result of being hit many times there by the ball.

The ends of the fingers of other people also enlarge, probably more often and earlier in those who have used their fingers a great deal. Such enlargements carry the name of Heberden's nodes after the distinguished English physician who described them years ago.

Many people, particularly overweight women in their forties or later, develop creaking knees which are stiff and slightly painful. Some have trouble with shoulders, hips, spine, or other joints with grating, soreness and discomfort. This is often called hypertrophic arthritis or osteoarthritis—poor names because inflammation is absent here.

A correspondent has asked whether this comes from lack of certain dietary elements or whether infection is responsible.

Diet probably does not enter in except that a good many who develop those joint changes comparatively early in life are overweight from eating too much and consequently have given their spines, hips, knees and feet too much weight to carry. Obviously over a long period of time this will tend to injure and wear out the joints just as much as hitting them with a baseball and this is not an inflammation.

IT'S NOT COMFORTING It isn't too comforting to tell someone who has trouble going up or down stairs that their joints are wearing down. However, it is worth knowing that they will never be seriously crippled and if it gets worse at all, it will be gradually. The joints of youth cannot be restored and made as good as they were before they were injured by the wear and tear of life.

Relief can be obtained quite often. Reduction of weight helps, an elastic bandage, heat, and a good balance between rest and exercise are measures often used effectively.

Here's More Reader Advice On How to Streamline Work

This is going to be a left-over column. It is going to be made up of advice left over from numerous letters from my readers. They wrote in answer to a housewife's plea: "How can I go about streamlining my housework?"

A 26-year-old housewife with three small children offers this: "Never let a whole week's work stare you in the face on Monday morning. Sometime each Sunday, when I can snatch a little peace and quiet for myself, I take six sheets of paper, head them for the workdays of the week. Then I divide out the week's special jobs, and from then on until the next Sunday I never view a whole week's work at once."

A wife who obviously as a prize husband writes: "I have the responsibility of caring for the children and the work to do all through the day so when my husband gets home at night I turn the children over to him."

"The kids look forward to their two hours with their Dad in charge. I certainly look forward to it."

"And so far their Dad seems to have not only survived, but he is better acquainted with his children than a lot of dads who hide from their kids behind the evening paper."

And here's still another suggestion: "The only way to streamline housework is to get the cooperation of your family. Unless every member of a family is good about hanging up, putting away, and cleaning up after themselves a housewife isn't the lady of the house, but it's constant slave."

A PHILOSOPHIC WIFE ADVISES A wife with a more philosophic outlook than most advises: "Tell the wife who wants to know how to streamline her housework that the work is always going to be there for her to do. She can't work circles in streamlining, but she can do a lot to change her attitude toward her work. I don't worry and fret about all I have to do; I just pitch in and do it as quickly as possible. And if it's a boring, routine job, I don't think about it. I think about something pleasant instead."

"And I've found it really makes me feel like less of a drudge if I don't look like one. When I scrub the kitchen floor I don't look like a scrubwoman. I've got my lipstick on just so, and my hair is tied back with a ribbon."

HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—Close-ups and Longshots: Silence is golden!

Hollywood's first silent movie since 1926—the dialogueless Ray Milland starrer "The Thief"—is one of the year's biggest money-making films. In competition with Hollywood's new 3-D wide-screen and stereophonic sound processes, "The Thief," to date, has netted almost $1,000,000 with another million expected from foreign showings.

Despite the new flood of secret-marriage rumors, in-the-knowers pass it along that Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio are not now and aren't likely to be joined in wedlock. The religious obstacles are seemingly insurmountable.

Latest on Fox's postponed production of Irving Berlin's "There's No Business Like Show Business":

Director Walter Lang, on whose account the big musical was postponed when he underwent surgery, is now showing up at Fox every day and the picture will go into production early in '54 with Ethel Merman, Mitz Gaynor and Johnnie Ray as the only stars definitely set. Ray will play a role after notifying the studio that he would not consent to do a mere specialty number.

The real Mr. Big in the life of Eva Bartok, the Hungarian beauty, is not the Marquis of Milford Haven as the front pages have it, but a handsome German actor named Curt Jurgens. They have made three films together and will wed.

Paramount's big-money offer to buy the three pictures that Audrey Hepburn owes a small London film company was turned down. Audrey's British film bosses merely want half of Ft. Knox for 100 per cent of the lass who's so zingy in "Roman Holiday."

PALEACE CRACKS WISE Sober-faced Jack Paleace gave Fox a howl when he answered a publicity questionnaire for the thriller, "Man in the Attic."

Sample Qs and As: Q: "What is the first thing you notice in a person?" A: "Whether the person is male or female." Q: "How did you decide to become an actor?" A: "I was hungry." Q: "How often do you have your hair cut?" A: "When I don't hear so good."

Hollywood on TV: "People Are Funny" is headed for the home screens next fall after 15 years on radio, but it won't feature big, elaborate, outdoor stunts on film as everyone expected.

"We're planning a live show for many reasons," Art Linkletter told me. "There's no element of surprise when you clutter up a place with cumbersome film equipment, and the photography is awful if you hide the camera. But, even more important, you can't suspend emotions in midair when the camera runs out of film."

We've made tests and the big, elaborately rigged stunts don't work on TV. On radio, imagination did the trick, but it won't work visually because there's too much scaffolding showing. And other TV shows proved to us that people resent other people being tarred and feathered or dunked in cement."

One hundred per cent human emotions and facial expressions of contestants, says Art, played brilliantly in the tests and will be featured on the visual "People Are Funny."

IT'S PEGGY FOR JACK

Peggy Lee is Jack Webb's choice for his costar in a new TV show he's planning, "Pete Kelly's Blues." ... Ed Gardner is okay after foot surgery. His right foot was broken a year ago and never healed properly. ... Hollywood's still betting the Ava Gardner-Frank Sinatra reconciliation ends in a divorce. ... Now it's a press agent, Bob Weis, adding to Dick Haymes' troubles. Says he will sue for $4,000 in back pay. ... Howard Keel is blushing. His first movie, a British stinker titled "Small Voice," is making the TV rounds.

Ingrid Bergman's operatic debut is now definite—St. Joan at the State—opening Dec. 12 in Naples. Rosebud will direct.

Westbrook Pegler

Many of the Hollywood Reds who were poked out from under the corncrib by J. B. Matthews, Bob Stripling, Joe McCarthy and other fierce pro-Americans are slinking back into the movies under a sort of amnesty granted by public indifference, abetted by the same shrewd businessmen who paid them fortunes for years, never even suspecting that they were traitors to the Land of Opportunity. Others in a lower category, the fellow-travelers who were just poor innocent dupes, though smart enough to scramble to the top of a cut-throat business, have been going through a confidential penitential process organized by George Sokolsky, the columnist. Sokolsky and I agree on Communists in principle but I do not respect his writs of absolution. I say that the likes of Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Judy Holiday, Edward G. Robinson, Danny Kaye and Lucille Ball should not be let off too lightly.

I was in the Statler in Washington when the Hollywood Committee for the First Amendment blew in on a great wind of publicity to discredit the expose of the treason and infidel financial and spiritual hunt on Morrie Ryskind, Jim McGuinness, Adolphe Menjou, and Patterson McNutt, who were Red-baiters when it took courage to bait Reds. I saw these precious fakers cutting up day after day and having a wonderful time. They were some of the cleverest people in the amusement trade. They knew Westbrook Pegler what they were doing and they did it for a purpose which later became inconvenient from both the social and financial angles. Never ask me to forgive anyone who has hurt me or my friends unless he begs forgiveness. And don't expect me to waive penance even then. These people haven't suffered at all to compensate the anguish that was inflicted on the loyal men that I have mentioned and on many others who were simply whispered out of their jobs and their careers by a conspiracy deep within the industry.

I have received more letters from readers all over endorsing the proposition that Lucille Ball hasn't earned the kind of consideration that was bestowed, even demanded, for her, than on any other essay of mine in years. This woman was no gullible child when she registered as a Communist voter. She took the risk knowingly and she kept her trap shut until the truth caught up with her. I have never had a word of evidence that any of that impudent band in the Statler that took ever had the mercy to touch the hand of any proud but heart-broken victim of the ostracism and offer to try to break the boycott. The advertising agency which handles the Lucille Ball show sent out a brochure of lenient editorial and "press comment" but I noticed that one item lifted from the Associated Press was repeated many times under the title-lines of as many papers. This made a little look like a lot. The AP story was loaded for this woman, though not by an editorial slant, and a careless reader might get a false impression that all those scattered papers condoned her act of registering to vote Communist.

It is true that Bogart and his wife, Bacall, announced soon after this impudent demonstration that they realized that they had made a mistake. But I have never learned that they did anything to atone for that mistake and the penitent doesn't get off merely by saying "skip it." I want them to tell us who else was implicated in that mistake, who thought it up, and what atonement was offered to those who suffered the sneers, frustrations and heartaches that pro-Americans were put to.

I reported recently that one Dale Kramer had done a book on juvenile crime with Madeline Karr, the wife of David Katz, alias Karp, Drew Pearson's leg-man who was spotted in the State Department, during the leakage of highly confidential stuff about Russia to Pearson's column. Both Madeline and Dave had worked for the Communist Daily Worker in New York and Kramer had worked for the Communist New Masses, which said he had been "active in the Farm Holiday Association" which was crawling with Communists. Howard Rushmore, a reformed Communist who really turned to and fought the treason, has stated that he sat with Kramer in actual party councils having to do with the proposed revolution of Midwestern farmers in the early '30's.

A publicity handout from Henry Holt and Co., which put out this book, said Mrs. Katz and Kramer would be called to testify about teenage gangs before Senator Hendrickson's sub-committee on juvenile delinquency. This was sheer ballyhoo under the imprint of a woman named Maureen McManus, a press agent for the publisher. On this point Senator Hendrickson writes: "I have never given any such commitment and know of no plans of this sub-committee to hear these persons."

A few years ago this woman ballyhooed a book by a clumsy propagandist for the John L. Lewis myth wherein K. T. Keller of Chrysler was accused of cowardice in a wrangle with Lewis. I consulted Keller, who called the author a liar and said he never had come near him for the facts.

Now the same Kramer has done a biography of Adolph Zukor, published by Putnam, which put out the John L. Lewis book. Ed Sullivan, the great philosopher of television, who used Paul Draper on his show after Draper began his litigious harassment of Mrs.

Questions and Answers

Q—How did the expression "seven years' bad luck" result from the breaking of a mirror?

A—The superstition dates back to the ancient belief that any surface which would produce a reflection reproduced the reflection of the soul. The surface therefore was guarded lest it be broken, and the soul injured.

Q—What special honor did Nicaragua accord to President Franklin D. Roosevelt?

A—A memorial stamp showing Roosevelt studying his stamp collection was issued by the country in 1946.

Q—At what point can one see stars of both Northern and Southern skies?

A—From the equator.

Q—Are any librarians able to fly?

A—No.

Q—What is the astronomical prediction for the star Vega?

A—Due to the precession of the stars, Vega will be the pole star in about 12,000 years.

Goes Sky High—Makes a Contract

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Don't roast me over the coals for the bidding," my friend Arthur Goldsmith pleaded when he gave me the hand shown today. I stretched a bit, my partner stretched a bit more, and then we both stretched together. Anyway, we got a bit too high."

I gave my word, so naturally I can't say anything about the very skimpy hand for the opening bid of one no-trump. If I hadn't promised, I'd say that a skimpy hand like that should pass the merely invitational bid of two no-trump.

But I won't say it, largely because Arthur is one of the best bridge players in the country, and if he feels like stretching a hand he can usually find some way to make his contract.

Arthur got his first break when West opened the deuce of clubs. Nobody had bid the suit, and it seemed quite safe. It just shows how deceptive appearances can be. If West had opened a spade, there wouldn't have been a happy ending to this story.

East won the first trick with the ace of clubs and returned the three of spades. Goldsmith won with the jack of spades and considered his resources. He could take one spade, one heart, two diamonds, and four clubs. Eight tricks available, with one trick to go.

South quite wisely decided to run the clubs. The opponents would have to discard, and they might have trouble or give valuable information.

They did both. East had to find four discards on the long clubs, and the effort strained both his hand and his disposition. He could afford one diamond and one heart. Then the going got tough. After some thought, he parted with a low spade.

Goldsmith saw the signs of trouble and could tell exactly what was going on. Evidently East had nothing worth saving in hearts, but was worried about spades and diamonds. So he threw a couple of hearts, cashed the ace of hearts, and led the king of spades!

East could take the three spades that he had managed to save, but then he had to get out with a diamond. It did East no good to lead the jack of diamonds; for he had already given his hand away. Goldsmith won in dummy with the ace of diamonds and confidently finesse through the queen of diamonds to make his contract.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

North East South West
1 Heart Pass 1 Spade Pass
2 Spades Pass

You, South, hold: Spades K-Q-J-7.

3. Hearts 9-2, Diamonds A-Q-6-2, Clubs 6-3. What do you do?
A—Bid four spades. You have 12 points in high cards and 2 points for the doubleton. That is quite enough for a game opposite a hand of 14 to 16 points and a spade fit. There cannot be enough for a slam, so there is no point to any other bid but four spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-Q-J-7, Hearts K-9-2, Diamonds K-7-6-2, Clubs 6-3. What do you do?

Answer Tomorrow

What's Right?

Even though you and your husband have your differences in private, never argue or bicker when you are guests in another's home or when you are entertaining guests in yours.

Remember there is nothing more embarrassing to others than a public argument between a husband and wife.

WSCS Circle B Talks Plans for Annual Bazaar

Circle B of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wilsie McCoy, 1516 West First st., with an attendance of 33 members and one guest. From a table colorful with fall decorations a delicious dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. McCoy and her co-hostesses: Mrs. Arthur Dodd, Mrs. David Kirk, Mrs. Peter Grubie and Mrs. Delbert Reed.

After Mrs. W. E. Whitson, circle chairman, had called the meeting to order she introduced Mrs. Robert Swaney, who led the devotional period. Taking as her theme, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations," Mrs. Swaney developed the thought that spreading the message of Christ's love, by daily kindness and thoughtfulness, is the privilege and duty of every Christian.

Mrs. Harold Huffman, vice chairman of Circle B, presented the first lesson in the study book for the year: "Within These Borders," by John R. Scottford.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Whitson, various reports were heard and plans for the annual bazaar were discussed. Greetings from Mrs. Casper Blimling, co-chairman, now visiting in California, were read by Mrs. Whitson.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the most difficult jobs of housekeeping is to keep linoleum and asphalt tile floors waxed and gleaming. Now, thanks to Glaxo, it is no longer necessary to wax and scrub. All you do is apply Glaxo with a brush about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non-slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor. Glaxo is available at Eichler Brothers. —Adv.

Home Adviser Pilgrim Attends Fall Conference at University

By JUNE PILGRIM — Home Adviser

Four days last week were spent at the University of Illinois attending the annual fall conference held on the campus there. One of the items we were brought up to date on was new housing research of the Small Homes Council.

The Small Homes Council at the University has a triple function. First an educational function—not in formal class work, but rather education for builders and home planning institutes that take place on the campus from time to time.

Its second function is research—and thirdly, its publications—written in laymen's language to help both the carpenter and home builder. More technical instruction sheets are provided also. Slides were shown to advisers showing the truss roof assembly. The Council's whole research is going into shortening the time needed to construct a new home, trying to do unit assemblies on the ground, even to putting on siding and windows, then units are literally swung into place. When actually timed, these methods take half as long as our older ways of construction.

The question came up about finishing redwood. The research done so far shows that any natural finish that lets the grain show through just isn't satisfactory up to this time. The sun is just too much for spar varnish. Our speaker revealed that a home owner might as well plan on redoing walls once a year if it is to be kept in top notch shape when clear finishes are used. Perhaps in the future better out-door varnishes will be produced.

The work Small Homes Council has done with the silicone base water repellents has been most satisfactory. These repellents are used on masonry—on the outside surface. They do not take the place of asphalt used on basement walls underground.

The flexible house is still in use.

Test families revealed their experiences in these homes with different layouts and room arrangements each month. Families live in test homes for six months, thus living with six different plans.

Researchers have decided this fact, even though people have many different reactions to different plans. First of all, that you need to have some place in the kitchen to eat. Also, that women are insisting on laundry facilities on the first floor. With automatic equipment test families seemed to be favoring its location in the bathroom rather than in or near the kitchen. But bathrooms need to be made bigger then—at least 8'x10'. Also, test families want a large living room. This evidently for television viewing, for entertaining, etc.

We urge anyone planning to build to look into the ten-cent bulletin issued by Small Homes Council called "Construction Methods." It goes into time study procedure, pre-cut materials, pre-assembly of parts, basement and first floor able. There is no stated time for publication. Your county extension offices—both Farm and Home Bureau—have copies available to anyone in the county who wishes to merely refer to them.

Special Lesson

On Friday of this week a special lesson on the topic "Hand-made Rugs" will be given to local leaders in Home Bureau units throughout the county. Specialist Mrs. Dorothy Twardock of the University of Illinois will be present to assist in the training of leaders in hooking rugs. Mrs. Frank Adams, Dixon, will train leaders in braiding rugs. This is an extra lesson provided for members who might be interested in it. Each unit wanting the subject has the privilege of sending two local leaders.

You see a man in a beautiful new Cadillac—and, almost instinctively, you take a second look.

Your judgment tells you that those who drive Cadillacs are likely to be people of importance—and are very probably in the public eye.

It is small wonder that you feel this way about people who own and drive these distinguished cars.

For more than half a century, Cadillac has been a favorite car of the leading people in every community across the land. For Cadillac is the only car in America whose name has consistently been reserved for the finest cars it is practical to produce.

People who want the finest have learned to come to Cadillac—as the tide goes with the moon!

Of course, you don't have to be a prominent person in order to find a reason for moving up to Cadillac.

There is every practical reason for owning a Cadillac—as well as every personal one.

Under normal driving conditions, the Cadillac car will run a full day on a single tankful of gasoline.

The lowest priced Cadillac costs less than twenty-two models of other makes of American-built cars.

And a Cadillac, according to an authoritative study of national used car prices, will return a greater share of its owner's investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land.

So whether you are prominent, or whether you are practical—Cadillac is your perfect choice!

Better come in and see us. Cadillac was never so fine and beautiful as it is today—and it was never more practical to own and enjoy.

Asks Showdown In West Europe

WASHINGTON—Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.) declaring America cannot continue indefinitely its manpower and financial commitments abroad, today urged a showdown with France on creation of a European army.

Stennis, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, spoke out in an interview after Secretary of Defense Wilson had told a news conference Monday he believed in the long run development of new weapons would permit a cut in United States troop strength in Europe. Wilson didn't define "long run."

The United States' Infantry strength in Europe is now the equivalent of six Army divisions.

Must Have German Arm
Stennis, a member of a subcommittee which reported last week after a tour of bases that this country has increased aerial striking power in Europe and Africa, said:

"We cannot and should not continue indefinitely to carry so large a part of the money and manpower burdens of this program. No permanent and effective defense of Europe can be carried out with German soldiers in the plan."

"The next move is up to France, and if she does not agree I think we should make alternative proposals that will include German soldiers and leave France and Italy out."

Army Stalled

Formation of a Western European army—projected to include troops from France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—has been stalled for months. Only West Germany has ratified the necessary treaties.

France, where concern has been voiced over possible revival of German militarism, has delayed action but prospects for ratification there have brightened somewhat. Italy has lately shown signs of backing unless her dispute with Yugoslavia over Trieste is settled to her satisfaction.

Iowa State Celebrants March Again

AMES, Iowa (AP)—Sleepless Iowa State College students, rebuffed in their second demand for a holiday to celebrate a homecoming football victory, returned to classes again today.

For the second straight night approximately 3,000 impatient students poured out over the sprawling campus, marched to the president's house, then blocked U. S. 30—the transcontinental Lincoln Highway.

They're Happy

The student exuberance was touched off Sunday night by Iowa State's 13-6 grid triumph over Missouri last Saturday. About 4,000 students, demanding Monday off, wildly demonstrated while police tossed tear gas bombs in a vain effort to disperse the throng.

The students erupted anew Monday night. Neither Ames nor state peace officers appeared to challenge them.

Dr. James Hilton, college president, appealed to the crowd, which he estimated at 3,000 Monday night, to disperse in an orderly manner and go home.

Dr. Hilton said it might be possible to dismiss classes for the Parents Day football game with Nebraska Nov. 7. He urged the students to go through proper administrative channels to get their requested holiday.

Stoke Bonfire

When somebody shouted, "Do we get Sunday off too?" the crowd marched off to the Lincoln Highway, stoked up a bonfire as on Sunday, and piled lengths of steel water main across the road.

A few students sat astride the pipes while two boys and two girls reposed in the middle of the highway playing bridge by the light of a street lamp.

The highway was opened and closed twice during the night as the students moved off in search of other adventure and then returned.

Engineers Tour Sterling Steel, Wire Industry

Seventy members and friends of the Rock River chapter, Illinois Society of Professional Engineers, were guests of the Northwestern Steel and Wire Company, Sterling, on an inspection trip of the company's Avenue "G" plant on Monday evening.

At a dinner sponsored by the Society, Charles A. Farnham, vice president of industrial relations, briefly reviewed the history of the company since its establishment in 1879 as manufacturer of barbed wire. The company pioneered the making of low carbon steel with the electric arc furnace in 1925 and today has the largest installation in two-150 ton capacity furnaces of any plant in the country. The company prides itself on the fact that they produce a greater variety of steel products in one plant than any other steel company in the United States.

Describes Plant
R. F. Davis, chief engineer, gave a short description of the various mills and electrical equipment in the plant, following Farnham's talk, after which the group was conducted to the Public Service Company Substation providing electrical energy for the mill operations. This substation is supplied over a 138,000 volt line and transforms the voltage through three 20,000 KVA transformers to 13,800 volts for use in the mill. It was pointed out that the total electrical energy consumed in the mill would supply a city of 150,000 people.

Proceeding to the mill, the group viewed the pouring operation from the electric furnace to the seven ton ingots and their progress through the reheat furnace to the 46 inch blooming mill. The blooming mill reduced the ingot to a "bloom" approximately six inches square which was further reduced in the billet mill to billets 2-5/16 inch square by 30 feet long. These billets may then be further processed into rods and thence to wire for use in the wire mill portion of the plant, or proceed through the merchant bar mill for processing into rods, bars or angle iron for commercial use.

However, Dulles' remarks and private information from U. S. officials has made it clear that the governments here and in London are decided on a slowdown in removal of the 7,000 American and British troops.

The idea was that a slowdown would lessen the chance that Marshal Tito would make good his threat to move his troops into the Allied zone rather than let Italian forces take over in accordance with the U.S.-British proposal of last week.

U. S. Erred in Revealing Atom Facts, Says Bush

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Vannevar Bush, wartime director of the office of Scientific Research and Development, says the United States has "erred gravely" in publishing technical facts about weapons development.

He told the American Institute of Consulting Engineers Monday night that such publicity is "short-sighted and will probably cost us dear."

Bush, who was an honored guest at the institute's annual dinner, said military planning at the highest level must be done secretly and without the pressure of public review or "horseback opinions of columnists."

John Wayne's Divorce Trial Causes Many Eyes to Blink

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The first day of the John Wayne divorce trial caused many eyes to blink than the smog.

The top box office actor's estranged wife, Mrs. Esperanza Baur Wayne, accused him of drunkenness, wife beating and some extra curricular love making with pretty actress Gail Russell.

Wayne angrily denied all of his fiery Mexican mate's accusations and countered with a few scandalous charges of his own.

Life with Wayne, according to the Mrs., was six years of smashing fists and crashing missiles. She said Monday that he kicked her, cursed her, dragged her around by one foot and bashed her on the nose. Always, said Mrs. Wayne, the real villain was alcohol and Wayne was a willing apologist when the stuff wore off.

Denies Charge
Wayne countered that the only times he laid hands on his wife was purely in self defense against what he termed her alcoholic rambages.

He accused her of spending so much time drinking and gambling at Las Vegas, Nev., that she returned home exhausted and with swollen ankles. Wayne said the latter condition resulted from too much standing up at the bars and crap tables.

Mrs. Wayne said her husband once came home from a studio party and told her he had spent the night alone with Miss Russell at her home. This, she added, was after he had entered the house by kicking the door down.

Wayne replied:

"Why did she had to drag that poor kid's name into this? I never had anything to do with Miss Russell except to make a couple of movies with her. True, we had a party at the end of a picture. Everybody was there from technical star. I came home at 2 a. m. and broke in the front door, not because I was drunk but because I had no key and my wife refused to open the door.

"I'm no saint but this is ridiculous."

Wayne said his wife had a nasty habit of frequenting bars with other men in Mexico and then picking up the tabs with the actor's money. He also charged her with entertaining a male friend for a week at their Encino home while Wayne was in Honolulu making a movie.

PWs Reject Reds, Talks Are Halted

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The delay-riddled Communist efforts to woo 22,000 ex-Red soldiers home to Communism halted indefinitely today after the Reds were turned down flat on demands that the POWs be dragged to the explanations by force if necessary.

Stung by the rebuff from India, Switzerland and Sweden, the satellite Polish and Czech delegates on the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission (NNRC) walked out Monday and gave no indication when they would return.

The explanations apparently were postponed indefinitely.

Observers speculated that the Red walkout could be a prelude to dropping their persuasion efforts entirely in an attempt to a void more of a propaganda whipping than they have already taken in two days of interviews.

Only 19 of 821 Chinese who heard the Red pleas to return home chose the door to Communism. The others refused—most of them with raucous, violent denunciations of the Reds.

Despite the lopsided results, the interviews with the 7,800 Chinese POWs had been proceeding smoothly, but the 14,600 Koreans completely stopped the show with a belligerent refusal to even listen to the Reds persuaders.

Under the truce terms, the interviews must end in December, Dec. 23 by Allied interpretation and Dec. 24 by Indian interpretation.

The U. N. Command still can interview the 23 Americans, 1 Briton and 335 South Koreans who have said they want to stay with the Reds.

Policeman Who Arrested Hall Suffers Breakdown

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The policeman who arrested the killer of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, central figure in a closed-door inquiry into police handling of the case, was reported today to be suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Dr. Charles M. Bauman, who made the announcement, said it would be at least several days before Lt. Louis Shoulders can be questioned in the investigation.

The inquiry, which began Monday before Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell, stemmed from reports the FBI has found discrepancies in police accounts of the arrest. It centers around the handling by police of two suitcases in which nearly half of the $600,000 ransom payment was recovered.

Question Partner
Dr. Bauman said he doesn't know when Shoulders will be in a condition to permit questioning.

Patrolman Elmer Dolan, Shoulders' partner in the arrest two weeks ago of Carl Austin Hall, was questioned periodically for 10 hours Monday in the police chief's office and then was returned to duty.

Shoulders is under treatment at his home.

O'Connell said Shoulders will be questioned "as soon as his doctor says it will be all right to do so."

The arrest of Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady followed a tip to Shoulders by taxi driver John Hager that Hall was armed and spending money on a big scale.

To Quiz Hager
O'Connell said Hager will be questioned today "if we are able to reach him."

Joseph Thornton, who has headed the FBI office here since April 1952 and was in charge of the FBI investigation of the kidnapping case, said Monday night he will be transferred to Omaha, Neb., shortly.

Thornton, a veteran of 19 years service with the FBI, termed the change "routine" and said the Greenlease case had nothing to do with the transfer.

The inquiry was ordered by the police board after published reports that the FBI had found discrepancies in police reports on the arrests.

But the board added it had no

Asks Russia To Show It Wants Peace

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer declared today Russia could show if she wants real peace by accepting a security pact with the European Defense Community as a first step toward world disarmament.

Adenauer made the statement in his keynote speech to the Bundestag (lower house of Parliament) after forming his government for the next four years.

He urged speedy ratification of the lagging plan to create a European army and said that this defense community would not only eliminate aggressive war between its partners but also against a third party.

The 77-year-old chancellor promised to push ahead with all his power to complete the plan to put a half million German troops into the projected two million man European army.

He laid down a three point foreign policy including restoration of German independence, reunion of divided Germany and integration of Germany into the European community and the Union of Free Europe.

1,514 Die on State Roads in 9 Months;

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Traffic accidents killed 1,514 persons on Illinois highways during the first nine months of this year, the state highway division reported today. This was 1 per cent higher than a year ago.

The September toll was 173, a 9 per cent decline from the same month last year.

Auto Registrations Increase in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Through last month, Illinois had licensed 115,622 more passenger cars than were registered in the first nine months of 1952.

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter reported Monday that while car registrations rose to a total of 2,528,000 Sept. 30, truck, bus and motorcycle licenses were down.

Total license fees paid showed an increase over the comparable 1952 period of $12,852,000, aggregating $59,703,000. Nearly 90 per cent of the increase was paid by truck owners, many of whom failed to pay 1952 fees and are now being sued for collection.

Hails Girl Who Wrote 116 Books, But They're in Air

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—All women have a way with words, but Peg Lynch has a way of making them pay.

One of the brightest girls in the big town, she has turned out so much prose her output makes the biggest dictionary look like a pocket magazine.

"Some day I'd like to write a book," she said, and if she really put her mind to it, well—it probably wouldn't take her more than a week.

We sat down and figured out how many words she had authored in her career as a radio and television writer. The total was roughly 11,600,000—the equivalent of 116 books of 100,000 words each.

Wants To Write

"But I still want to write a real book, or a good Broadway play," she said wistfully. "If I ever can find the time."

Time is what Peg has the least of. She both writes and plays the leading role in "Ethel and Albert," a radio and TV marital comedy she has kept going for nine years.

She spends Sunday and Monday writing it, and the rest of the week endlessly rehearsing and polishing it. Her average day begins at 5 a.m., and may go until nearly midnight. She never has a full day off.

Washes Own Hair

"I have to wash my own hair because I don't have time to go to a beauty parlor," she said. "I even have to have someone else buy my clothes for me—and no woman likes that—because I can't take the time off to go shopping."

Peg is a slender, friendly brunette who looks just like the kind of a wife the average guy would like to come home to, which explains her charm as an actress.

Born in Lincoln, Neb., she was raised in Minnesota and went to the state university. After working for the Mayo Clinic, she landed a job with a small Minnesota radio station.

Busy Girl

"I wrote 250 spot commercial announcements a week," she recalled. "And I also turned out a daily half-hour woman's show, a weekly little theater show, a 15-minute farm news program, three 10-minute plays and two 5-minute sketches a week."

The pay was $70 a month—and the problem was trying to find time to sleep. She still has the same problem, but the pay is better.

Before World War II, Korean industry, located mostly in the north now held by the Communists, was more important than that of either Mexico or Turkey, says the National Geographic Society.

Administration Studies Increase In Pay Levels

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration was reported today seriously considering asking Congress to increase the present 75-cent-an-hour minimum wage.

Former Secretary of Labor Martin P. Durkin had decided before he resigned last month to ask White House clearance for a request to raise the minimum to $1.

Durkin's successor, James P. Mitchell, is now putting finishing touches on all the department's legislative proposals. Responsible sources, both on Capitol Hill and in the Labor Department, said odds are in favor of White House endorsement.

Pray for Rain

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—Residents of this drought-stricken city held a day of prayer for rain Monday.

Mayer Eugene Wenthe issued proclamation. All churches remained open throughout the day so members could come in to pray for rain.

Water consumption here has been cut to 30 gallons per person per day for the past week.

Notre Dame Holds First; Lead Slimmer

Illini Move Into Seventh In AP Poll

Spartans Trail Irish by 46 Votes; Maryland Is Third

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame is leading the national football ranking list for the fourth straight week. After last week's 23-14 victory over Pittsburgh, Notre Dame polled 57 first-place votes out of 134 cast in the fourth weekly Associated Press ranking poll. The Irish haven't been displaced since the nation's sports writers and broadcasters picked them in the preseason poll as the team most likely to succeed.

But their two closest rivals in the weekly balloting, Michigan State and Maryland, were closer than ever before when the points were totaled up on the usual basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc.

Tech Climbs

Notre Dame wound up with 1,153 points and a margin of only 46 points over runner-up Michigan State. A week ago, Notre Dame had 74 first-place votes and 1,226 points to 14 and 977 for Michigan State.

Notre Dame plays fourth-ranked Georgia Tech Saturday in a game that could completely upset the standings. Tech, a team that didn't show much offense in its early games, got started against Tulane a week ago and rolled over threatening Auburn by a 36-6 count last Saturday to climb from sixth place to fourth in the rankings.

Easy Winner

Michigan State, an easy winner over Indiana, collected 31 votes for first place and 1,107 points, this week while Maryland, breezing past North Carolina as easily as its earlier opponents, polled 27 firsts and 1,004 points. Georgia Tech, with only three firsts, received 769 points.

NCAA Serves Up Four in One Grid Package

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. serves up its four-for-one package in football television Saturday.

It's the so-called panoramic experiment, tried for the first time this year. Parts of four games in widely separated parts of the country will be shown instead of one complete contest.

Here's the program, to be beamed over the NBC network starting at 12:45 p.m., CST:

1 p.m.—Princeton vs. Cornell at Princeton, N. J.

1:30 p.m.—Illinois vs. Syracuse at Champaign, Ill.

1:30 p.m.—Iowa vs. Indiana at Iowa City.

2 p.m.—Arkansas vs. Mississippi at Memphis.

Tom Gallery, NBC sports director, said today the panorama will switch back and forth among the sites to record action where it is thickest.

Williamson May Have New Rabbit in Hat for Badgers

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Has Ivy Williamson come up with another sleeper?

On the basis of one football game, it seems possible the wily Wisconsin coach has produced a capable sophomore quarterback for the second year running, this one a 163-pound youngster named Jim Miller.

Young Miller, making his first collegiate start, had a field day Saturday as Wisconsin opened defense of its Big Ten co-championship with a 28-10 victory over Purdue, with whom it shared the title a year ago.

'He's Quick'

The kid from Eau Claire, Wis., scored two touchdowns, ran for 85 yards on five stabs and completed two of six passes for 32 yards.

"He's quick," the Badger coach says. "He can be off in a flash. His greatest opportunities develop when he drops back to pass and the defense begins to scatter."

"Miller isn't fast but he runs with an instinct. He knows without thinking what direction to take or when to change it."

The Miller story may be a sequel to the one Williamson wrote last fall with Jim Haluska in the starring role.

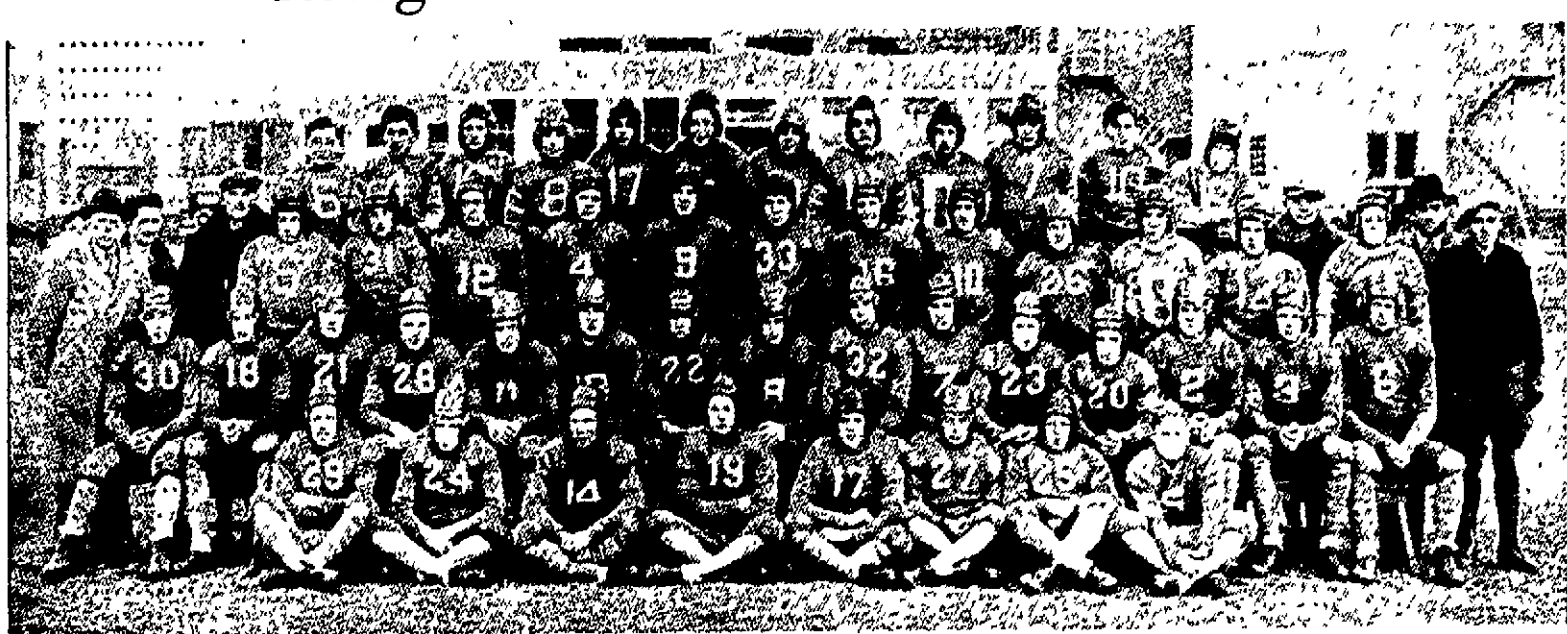

Sure To Start

In the summer of 1952, with Johnny Coatta graduated, Williamson said the quarterback situation looked pretty bad. But when the Badgers opened there was sophomore Haluska, who'd never played in a college game before, at the throttle. He stayed there, too, and the Badgers went to the Rose Bowl.

Last summer Haluska broke his leg playing baseball. Senior Gust Vergetis started in the three non-conference games and Wisconsin beat Penn State, edged Marquette and lost to UCLA. Glen Wilson relieved Vergetis occasionally and Miller got in for a few minutes, chiefly on defense.

Last Saturday morning, Williamson said he didn't know who would start at quarterback against Purdue. Miller did. It's a cmch he'll do the same this Saturday against Ohio State at Madison.

Gavilan Wants Match With Turpin-Olson Fight Winner

Bobo Ranks 11-5 Choice To Win Title

Boxing Men Fear Randy Has't Boxed Enough for Bout

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—The new middleweight champion of the world—Randy Turpin or Bobo Olson—will have a ready challenger in Kid Gavilan, the welter champ.

The Cuban keed, training at Summit, N. J., for a Nov. 13 defense against Johnny Bratton at Chicago, is anxious to jump into the 160-pound division against the winner of Wednesday's 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

Want Winner

"Win or lose with Bratton, we want Turpin or Olson next," said Angel Lopez, Gavilan's manager.

Almost to a man, the managers and trainers who make boxing their business lean toward Olson, an 11-5 favorite. They respect Turpin for his first fight with Sugar Ray Robinson but they have been bewildered by his sporadic training.

Too Little Boxing

Even Jack Solomons, the London promoter, admitted, "He hasn't done enough boxing to suit me." Solomons, whose biggest drawing card is Turpin, said the British Negro appeared "out of distance (off on his timing)."

The International Boxing Club said there was a lively interest in ringside seats with about $85,000 in advance sale. Best guess on the crowd probably is 15,000 paying $10,000. The bout will be carried on CBS network radio and television.

WHAT'S THE SCORE

by Norm Jollow

HALL TOWNSHIP FURNISHES THE OPPOSITION for Dixon at the annual homecoming game here Friday and for the Dukes to make it a successful celebration, it will require an all out effort.

Perhaps a good point to remember would be that Dixon's only defeat last year in conference play was suffered at the hands of Hall. And, it was the only loop game the Red Devils won last season.

THIS YEAR, THE SITUATION IS ALMOST REVERSED. Hall has picked up two victories already in conference play, and is favored to carry on this string right through the season. Dixon, on the other hand, while not unvictorious so far, has won but one loop game, that against DeKalb last week. So, it would be fitting for the Dukes to up and smite down the mighty Devils.

Signal drills were again the order of the day for Coach Don Barnhart's boys last night, and there may be more of the same, though Barney had not made up his mind what his program would be this week.

THE SIGNAL DRILL SYSTEM WORKED last week. The Dukes moved the ball extremely well against the Barbs, the result of having handled the ball so often during practice, that they were able to move as though it were second nature.

However, it can be expected that the Dukes will get some contact work this week, a toughening up process needed to halt a powerful Hall eleven which features the hard running of left halfback Bobby Adams.

The Red Devils work from the Split T formation, but feature power plays into the line.

THERE MAY BE SOME CONSOLATION taken from the fact that Ottawa played the Red Devils to a 7-0 game, but our report has it that Ottawa played one of its best games.

More consolation might be taken from the Dixon showing against DeKalb. Granted that the Dukes were playing the weakest team in the conference, a team that until last Friday had not scored a touchdown. Still Dixon showed its greatest strides in offensive improvement of the season in the DeKalb game, and if they can show a little more, keep their defense as tight as it has been on many occasions, the Dukes should make it a real battle, and as we hoped before, might hand Hall the same treatment Dixon received last year.

THIS INCIDENTALLY, WILL BE THE DUKES' LAST conference game of the season. A victory would bring them even with the .500 mark with two wins against two losses. A loss would drop them to a .250 average with one win against three losses.

Mt. Morris Beats Oregon F-S, 20-0

Polo Wins Forfeit From Mt. Carroll; Not Enough Boys

OREGON—(Special)—Two pass interceptions and a fumble gave Mt. Morris two touchdowns and set up a third as the Mounders frosh-sophos scored a 20-0 victory over Oregon last night.

Gene Hoffman intercepted the two passes in the last four minutes of the second period and ran both back for touchdowns. In the third period, Dave Bechtold scored on a end run of 20 yards after the Mounders had recovered a fumble in Oregon territory.

The victory was the second straight in Blackhawk competition for the young Mounders. It was the first loss against one win and one tie for Oregon.

Polo with a 1-0 record was scheduled to meet Mt. Carroll with an 0-1 mark, but the game was cancelled because Mt. Carroll, hobbled by injuries, could not get together enough players. The game is forfeited to Polo, giving the Mares a 2-0 record and a tie with Mt. Morris.

Marseilles F-S Tops Amboy With 18-0 Win

AMBOY—(Special)—A strong Marseilles frosh-soph team closed out the Amboy season by handing the Clipper underclassmen their fifth straight loss of the season, 18-0.

After the two teams had played to a 0-0 stalemate in the first quarter, Marseilles broke the scoring ice with a touchdown in the second period and then added a TD in each of the final two quarters.

Amboy never seriously threatened in the game. Though this closes out the school schedule, Coach Larry Martens said a freshman against sophomore game is a possibility.

Syracuse Holds Off Contact Drill

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Syracuse's football team put off contact work until today as the Orange prepares to take on powerful Illinois Saturday in Urbana.

Coach Floyd Schwartzwalder put his once-beaten team through a dummy session Monday, and the Orange studied Illini plays.

Porterfield Tops Majors With 9 Pitching Shutouts

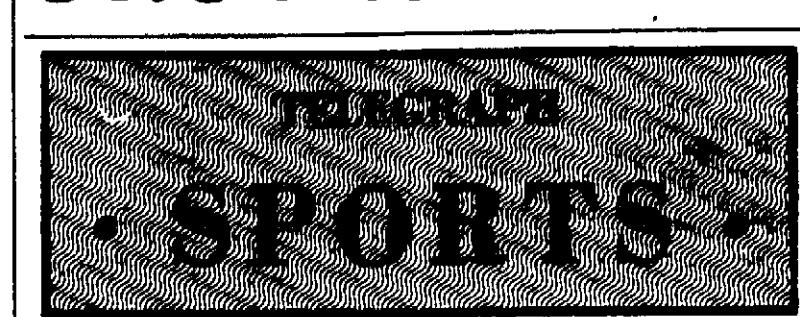

NEW YORK—Bob Porterfield shut out every American league team but the Detroit Tigers at least once this season and the Washington right-hander's nine shutouts topped the majors.

Statistics compiled by The Associated Press today also revealed that rookie Harvey Haddix of the St. Louis Cardinals had the most shutouts in the National league—six.

Porterfield, in posting a 22-10 won-lost record, blanked Philadelphia three times, Chicago twice, and New York, Boston, St. Louis and Cleveland once each.

Haddix won 20 and lost nine in his first complete season in the majors after serving in the army. The 28-year-old lefty served Chi-

Wheelchair Cripple Kills 226-Pound Bear With Gun

YUBA CITY, Calif. (U)—A cripple confined to a wheelchair for 40 years related Monday how he held off, then killed a 226 pound black bear in northern California's deer hunting country.

Bryan Arritt, 50, was seated when he spotted a bear 60 feet away on a hillside while friends moved south to drive a deer toward him.

He had four shells in his .300 rifle.

"The first one caught him in the shoulder," said Arritt. "He got up and charged me. The next one got him in the front leg. As he came down I got him again under the right eye. I fired my last shell and hit him in the hind leg."

"He got up and came at me again. When he got about a foot and a half away, I poked him off with the barrel of my gun. The blood kept spattering all over me. He circled me. I threw a couple of rocks at him."

Arritt said he managed to get another shell in the gun.

"When he came in close, I let him have it between the eyes. He was pretty dead then."

Godfrey Loses Singer LaRosa To Ed Sullivan

NEW YORK (U)—Singer Julius La Rosa has departed from the cast of the Arthur Godfrey radio and television programs.

Orchestra conductor Archie Bleyer has left Godfrey's morning shows and Wednesday night program and will step down from the Monday evening "Talent Scouts" in the next few weeks.

It was reported that La Rosa would join the Ed Sullivan show.

The departures of the two from the Godfrey cast became known Monday. Godfrey announced on his morning program that La Rosa was leaving to try other phases of show business. He wished "good speed" to La Rosa, who appeared on the program, and then signed off.

A Columbia Broadcasting System spokesman later said the 23-year-old La Rosa had not been dismissed by Godfrey and had made his own decision to depart.

It later became known that La Rosa had signed a talent contract last week for the General Artists Corp. to manage his affairs and arrange personal appearances.

The New York Daily News said today that Sullivan, a columnist for the News, had announced signing La Rosa as a regular on Sullivan's Sunday night CBS "Toast of the Town" program.

Neither Godfrey nor La Rosa could be reached for comment. There was no explanation for the departure of Bleyer.

State Highway Deaths Rising

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (U)—Deaths from traffic mishaps in Illinois during the first nine months of 1953 totaled 1,514, Edwin A. Rosenstone, state director of Public Works and Buildings, reported Monday.

The nine months toll is 18 more than for the comparable period of 1952.

The September 1953 toll of 173 dead is 18 less than for the September 1952.

Mrs. Heady Asks to Die With Carl

KANSAS CITY — (U)—"The only thing I want to do now is die in the gas chamber with Carl."

That remark was attributed Monday to Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, confessed kidnaper of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease. The Carl she referred to is 34-year-old Carl Austin Hall, who admitted slaying Bobby and burying the body in Mrs. Heady's back yard.

A police officer who declined use of his name quoted Mrs. Heady, a 41-year-old divorcee.

Mrs. Heady had declined to read religious tracts brought to the jail by various church organizations.

"I have never had anything to do with religion during my life and I don't intend to start now," she was quoted as saying.

When canary birds were first exported from the Canary Islands for pets during the 16th century, Spain tried and failed to maintain a monopoly of the trade by exporting only males.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF GOOD CREDIT
1—Helps the borrower as much as the lender.
2—Liquitates itself from earning and not sale of collateral.
3—Requires repayment only at the time income is received.
4—Must be considered a useful tool in its particular business.

ZENITH'S New CINEBEAM picture tube

from the same great ZENITH researchers who gave you—

Twice the picture power!

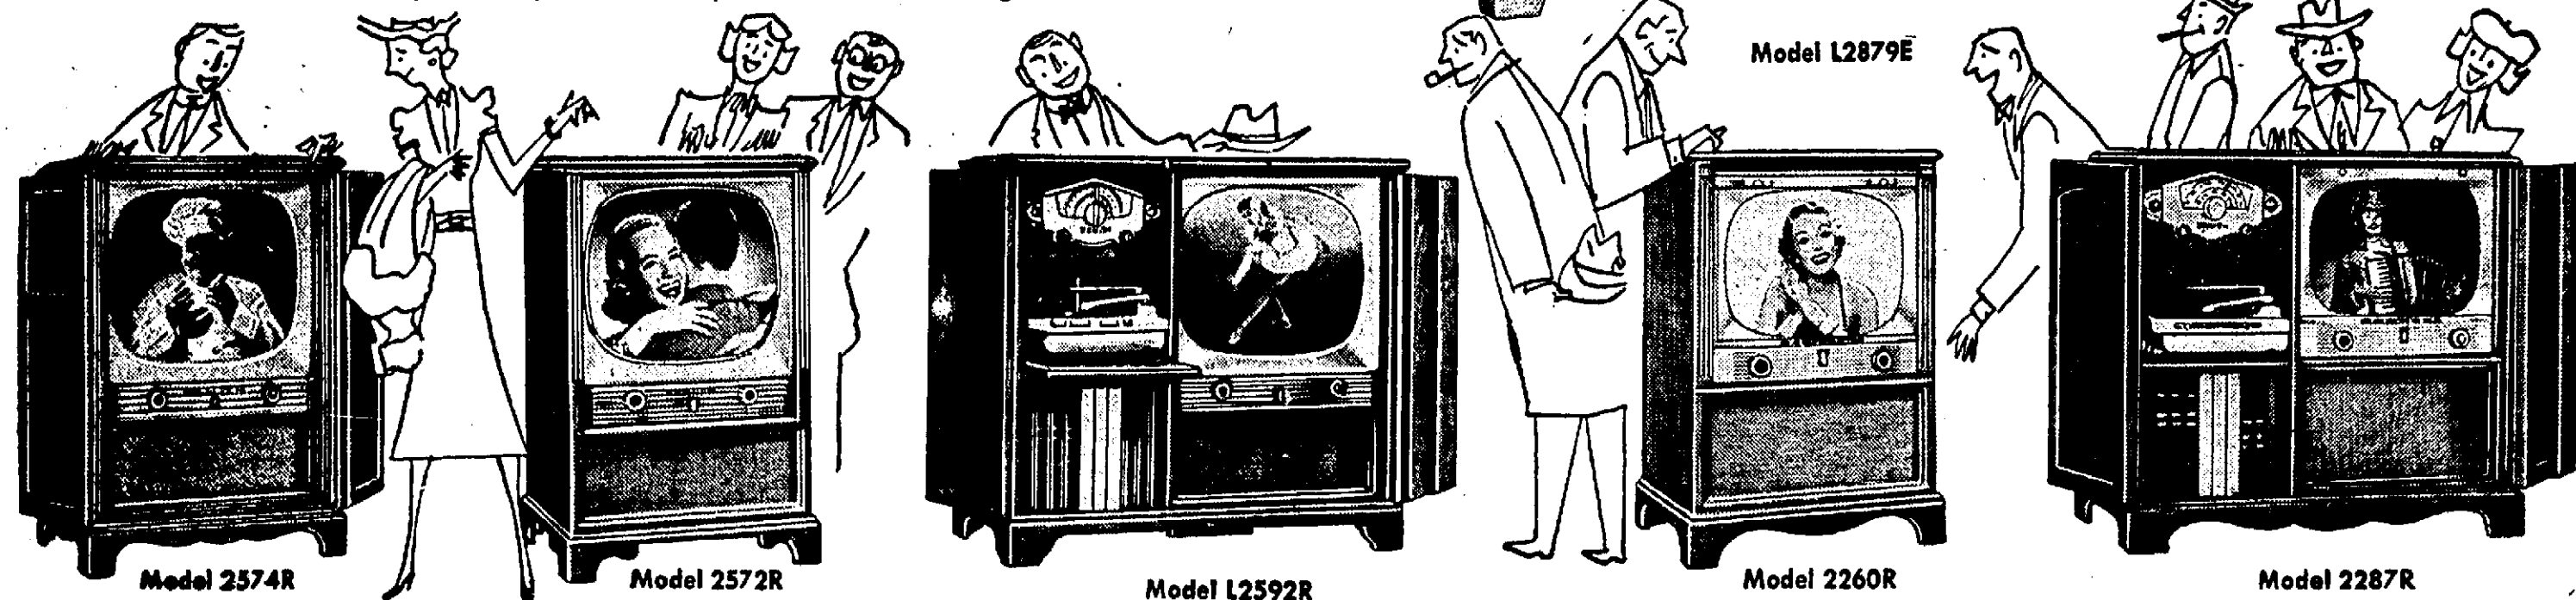

The inside face of the Cinebeam picture tube is coated with silver activated phosphors. These are sealed in for life by millions upon millions of tiny tarnish-proof metallic particles which act as mirrors. These mirrors reflect all of the electronic light out through the face of the picture tube—none can remain inside. This doubles the picture power.

Longer tube life!

Even though CINEBEAM gives you twice the picture power it uses 20% less beam current... giving the tube longer life.

And that's not all!

Ion burns and yellow spots on the picture screen are gone forever!

Seven Zenith CINEBEAM models have 24 inch picture screens.

Eight Zenith CINEBEAM models have 21 inch picture screens.

Pictures on a Silver Screen—just like movies!

For years to come the entire family will enjoy cinema-perfect pictures reflected from a silver screen just like at the movies.

—when you own a ZENITH CINEBEAM TV, you know—and everybody else knows—you own the best!
